AMENDED AND RESTATED

BY-LAWS

OF

SCENIC HILLS COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.

WHEREAS, ON OR ABOUT April 21, 1983, Raymond S. Wiltshire, Michael Smalley and James G. Migliore, as directors of SCENIC HILLS COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC., adopted the By-Laws of SCENIC HILLS COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC. (the "Original By-Laws"); and

WHEREAS, the Original By-Laws provide that they may be altered, amended or rescinded at a regular or special meeting of the members of the Association by a majority vote of greater than 50 percent of the total entitled possible votes present in person, by proxy, or by absentee ballot. A quorum is defined in Article II, Definitions as contained in the Covenants; and

WHEREAS, the Association on behalf of all of its members desires to consolidate, simplify, amend and restate the provisions of the Original By-Laws and any By-Laws relating to the corporation known as SCENIC HILLS - PHASE I COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.; and

WHEREAS, at a membership meeting held on May 24, 1990, these amended and restated By-Laws were approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the members present in person or by proxy at such meeting; and

WHEREAS, at a membership meeting held on March 19, 2008, a Second Amendment to the By-Laws of the Scenic Hills Community Association was approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the members present in person or by proxy at such meeting; and

WHEREAS, at membership meetings held on March 26, 2009, and May 26, 2015, these amended and restated By-Laws were approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the members present in person or by proxy at such meeting; and

WHEREAS, the amendments approved at the membership meetings held on March 26, 2009 and May 26, 2015 are now included within this Amended and Restated By-Laws for the Association, which in the interest of clarity, reflects all amendments to the Original By-Laws, as set forth above, up to the date of this Amendment; and

WHEREAS, it shall be publicly known that the provisions of the Texas Property Code shall, where conflicts exist, supersede the articles contained herein; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Association does hereby publish and declare that the following Amended and Restated By-Laws for the Association are hereby adopted, and shall, in all matters, amend any By-Laws with respect to SCENIC HILLS – PHASE I COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE I

NAME AND LOCATION

The name of the corporation is Scenic Hills Community Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Association." The principal office of the corporation shall be located at 4820 Scenic Drive, Cibolo, Texas, 78108, but meetings of members and directors may be held at such places within Bexar County or any adjacent county as may be designated by the Board of Directors after due notice as required by the Texas Property Code.

ARTICLE II

Section 9. "Board" shall mean and refer to the "Board of Directors" of the Association.

Section 10. All other terms defined in the Declaration shall have the same meaning when used herein.

ARTICLE III

MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of the Members shall be held during the first calendar quarter of each year on the date and at such time and place as the Board shall designate.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members for any stated purpose may be called at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of the Members holding one-fourth (1/4) of all of the votes entitled to be cast.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the Members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary or person authorized to call the meeting. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting, as dictated by the Texas Property Code.

(a) Notice of any meeting called for the purpose of taking any action authorized under Section 3, 4, or 5 of Article IX of the Declaration shall be given to all Members as required by Texas Property Code, either by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, addressed to the Member's address last appearing on the books of the Association or supplied by such Member to the Association, or by delivering same to the Member's residence either electronically, by mail or utilization of clips designed for delivery of Association documents.

(b) Notice of all other meetings shall be given as specified by the Texas Property Code in advance of such meeting to each Member by the same procedure as in this Section, (a) above.

(c) Delivery of notice pursuant to subsection (a) to any co-owner of a lot, or a lot and unit, shall be effective for all co-owners of such lot or lot and unit unless otherwise requested by a co-owner. If notice to additional co-owners is required or desired, the co-owner must request such notification in writing to the Association Secretary or Association Manager. The address to which such notice is to be sent or delivered must be provided at the time of the request.

Section 4. Quorum. A quorum shall be established when the number of Association Members present and the number of absentee voters certified by the Association Secretary at the initiation of any regular or extra called business meeting of the Association is one-third of the number of Members listed on the Secretary's file of Association Members. If no quorum is constituted there shall be no business conducted, except to adjourn to another time where a quorum might be achieved.

Section 5. Voting. At all meetings of Members, each Member may vote in person or by proxy or absentee ballot. Any Member who wishes to vote by absentee ballot shall request from the office the ballot or ballots they are entitled to cast. The office will provide them inside an unmarked envelope which will be inside a larger envelope with the voter's name and address in the return address position. The voter may return their signed ballot(s) in person or by mail, using the outer envelope. The signed ballots should be sealed inside the inner envelope. The office staff or the Association Secretary will check the name and address against the master list of Members, deposit the inner envelope in a locked ballot box to be counted just before or at the same time as the other ballots. The outer envelope will be recorded to determine which ballots have been submitted and the envelope destroyed. To be valid, and counted of record, the absentee ballots must be signed and received prior to the scheduled start of the meeting. No absentee ballots received after the scheduled start of the meeting shall be counted towards the election results.

Section 6. Majority Vote. The acts approved by a majority of the votes cast, either in person or by absentee ballot, at a meeting at which a quorum is established shall constitute the acts of the Members, except when approval by a greater or different voting majority is required by the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws.

Section 7. Voting Members. At any voting of the Members of the Association, the Owner or Owners of a lot shall cast collectively one ballot. The Owner or Owners of a Lot and Unit shall collectively cast two ballots. When more than one person or entity owns a Lot or a Lot and Unit the vote shall be exercised as such persons determine, but in no case shall the number of ballots cast exceed the number of Lots and Units, nor shall any split of a single ballot be allowed.

(a) If a Lot or Lot and Unit is owned by a corporation, the officer, agent or employee entitled to cast the vote of the corporation shall be designated in a letter for this purpose, signed by the president or vice-president of said corporation, and filed with the Secretary of the Association and/or the Association Manager.

(b) A non-resident Owner of a Lot or Lot and Unit may designate, in a letter for this purpose, filed with the Secretary of the Association, someone to vote in his/her behalf.

(c) If a Lot and Unit are owned by family members who are not residents of Scenic Hills they may allow the residents to vote in their stead by filing a letter to that intent with the Secretary of the Association stating the name(s) of those entitled to vote.

Section 8. Waiver of Notice. Any Owner may waive notice of any annual or special meeting of Members by a written statement either before, at or after such meeting. Attendance by an Owner, or his designated voting Member, at a meeting shall also constitute a waiver of notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

Section 9. Determination of Membership. For the purpose of determining the person entitled to notice under any provision of these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Declaration, and for the purpose of determining those persons entitled to vote at any meeting of the Association, membership and eligibility to vote shall be as shown on the books of the Association as of the date set by the Board, which date shall not be more than fifty (50) days prior to the date of such meeting.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: SELECTION: TERM OF OFFICE

Section 1. Number. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of Seven (7) Directors who shall be Members of the Association. The number of directors may be changed from time to time by amendment to these By-Laws, but shall always be an odd number, and may not be less than three (3), nor more than nine (9).

Section 2. Term of Office. At each annual meeting of Members, an election shall be held, as described in Article V of these By-Laws, to elect the directors for a term of three (3) years to succeed those whose terms expire. A director shall continue in office until his successor shall be elected and qualifies, unless he sooner dies, resigns or is removed, or becomes otherwise disqualified to serve.

Section 3. Removal. Any director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Members of the Association. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a director, his successor shall be selected by a majority of the remaining members of the Board, and shall serve as a member of the Board until the expiration of the term of the member being replaced. An appointed Director is eligible to be a candidate for election at the next regular election of Board of Directors.

Section 4. Compensation. No director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Association. However, any director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

Section 5. Action Taken Without a Meeting. In an emergency, deemed to be so by the President, the Board of Directors shall have the right to take action by email or phone to absent board members. Any action taken in such circumstance shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE V

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Nomination. Each year, during December, prior to the General Membership Meeting, the Board of Directors shall choose a sitting board member or a resident to chair a Nominating Committee. The chair shall choose other Members to assist in creating a list of candidates for Board Membership. Members of the Association shall be invited to nominate themselves. The committee shall inform each candidate of the duties, responsibilities and rights of Board Membership. Each candidate shall be asked to submit a statement listing his or her qualifications to serve as a Board Member, which statement shall be published in the March edition of The Scene. A resident meeting will be held before the scheduled election at which the candidates may state their qualifications for office and answer questions as posed by the community at large.

Section 2. Election. The Board shall choose a Member who is not a current Board Member and not a member of the Nominating Committee to head an Election Committee. The chair shall choose other Members to assist in running the election. The Election Committee shall run the election and see to the counting of all votes, which shall be by signed ballot. All tabulations of ballots shall be conducted by external, disinterested and unrelated parties to Scenic Hills Association Members and will not be residents of Scenic Hills. Further, these tabulators will operate under the Guidance of the Election Committee Chair.

ARTICLE VI

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held at least annually, with notice of such meeting as required by the Texas Property Code, at such place and hour as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Meeting will not be scheduled or held on legal holidays. Special Meetings may be conducted on holidays if emergency or critical situations exist requiring immediate action.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board shall be held when called by the President of the Association, or by any two directors, after not less than 72 hours' notice to each director. In order to comply with the Texas Property Code, the stated purpose of the meeting must be included in the appropriate announcement of the meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. A majority of the number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board.

Section 4. Waiver of Notice. Notwithstanding any provision of these By-Laws as to notice, a director may waive notice of any meeting either before, at or after such a meeting. Attendance at a meeting by a director shall also act as a waiver of notice thereof.

Section 5. Adjourned Meetings. If at any meeting of the Board there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. At any adjourned meeting any business that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

ARTICLE VII

POWER AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section I. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have the power to:

(a) adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use and security of the Common Area and facilities, and the personal conduct of the Members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof. This power must not conflict the Texas Property Code or other applicable State of Texas legislation.

- (b) suspend the voting rights and right to use of the Common Area of a Member during any period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended, after notice and hearing before the Board, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for infraction of other published rules and regulations;
- (c) exercise for the Association all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this Association and not reserved to the Membership by other provisions of these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Declaration;
- (d) declare the office of a member of the Board to be vacant in the event such member shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board;
- (e) employ, or contract for, such employees as they may deem necessary and to prescribe their duties;
- (f) authorize the execution of any easement as provided in Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation, or other assignment, conveyance or transfer of property of the Association, real, personal or mixed, except where member consent or approval is expressly required by the terms of the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws;
- (g) authorize expenditures to fund the cost of the expenses of the Association in exercising its powers and carrying out its duties, including, without limitation, the repair or replacement of existing facilities and equipment. Expenditures for a capital item costing over $7,500 must be approved in advance by a vote of the membership.

Section 2. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board to:

- (a) cause to be kept correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its Members, board of directors, and committees having any authority of the Board of Directors. A Member of the Association, on written demand stating the purpose of the demand, has the right to examine and copy, in person or by agent, accountant, or attorney, at any reasonable time, for any proper purpose, the books and records of the Association relevant to that purpose at the expense of the Member. The Board of Directors shall also cause a triennial review of the Association Reserve. To this end, the Board will, on a triennial basis, hire and oversee an update of the Reserve by a registered Reserve Specialist.
- (b) supervise all officers, agents and employees of this Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed;

(c) Cause to be prepared and adopt an annual operational and reserve budget for the ensuing year at least 30 days before the end of the fiscal year. This Budget shall project and make allowance for all reasonable anticipated expenses for the upcoming year. Reasonable allowances for contingencies to include an allocation for the Reserve and put in place a process to assure the Reserve Fund remains more than seventy five percent (75%) funded each year. The annual allocation to the Reserve will be provided by the Board of Directors to the Budget Formulation Committee for inclusion in the annual budget. Any increase in assessment fees of more than 5% shall be as limited by the Master Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, Article IX, Section 3.

The Budget shall be delivered in writing to all Members of the Association immediately after it is adopted by the Board

At an Association Meeting set by the Board prior to the last day of November the Board shall present the Budget and explain to the Members the purpose of each part of it, shall answer any reasonable questions and shall listen to suggestions.

If the Board is so persuaded, it can then make adjustments to the Budget, provided it does not increase the Budget and it remains balanced.

Neither the Board's failure to timely adopt the budget nor the failure to give a copy thereof to the Owners shall be deemed a waiver, modification or a release of the Owners from their continuing duty to pay their annual assessments at the duly established rates.

(d) as more fully provided in the Declaration, to:

(i) fix the amount of the annual assessment against each Lot, or Lot and Unit, subject to assessment in advance of each annual assessment period;

(ii) send written notice of each assessment to every Owner subject thereto in advance of each annual assessment period; and

(iii) take such action against any Lot or Lot and Unit, or Owner of any Lot or Lot and Unit, for which assessments are not paid within 30 days after due date as is provided for in the Declaration or in these Bylaws.

(e) issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any Owner, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment levied against such Owner's property has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of these certificates. If a certificate states an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment;

(f) procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on property owned by the Association;

(g) cause all officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate;

(h) cause the Common Area and other land for which the Association is obligated for maintenance by the Declaration to be maintained, and

(i) perform such other functions and duties as may be provided by the Declaration or the Articles of Incorporation and not expressly reserved to the Members.

Section 3 -Power to Enforce Restrictions and Rules and Regulations. The Association, through the Board of Directors, has the power and the duty to conduct disciplinary proceedings against members of the association for rules violations. Disciplinary actions authorized will include the levying of fines where warranted.

ARTICLE VIII

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. Enumeration of Offices. The officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice-President, who shall at all times be members of the Board of Directors, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time by resolution create. Officers must be Members of the Association.

Section 2. Election of Officers. The election of officers shall take place at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the Members.

Section 3. Term. The officers of this Association shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and each shall hold office for one (1) year and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, unless he shall sooner resign, be removed, or be otherwise disqualified to serve.

Section 4. Special Appointments. The Board may elect such other officers as the affairs of the Association may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board may, from time to time, determine.

Section 5. Resignation and Removal. Any officer may be removed from office with or without cause by the Board of Directors. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment of the Board. The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of the officer he replaces.

Section 7. Multiple Offices. No person shall simultaneously hold more than one office.

Section 8. Duties. The duties of the officers are as follows:

(a) President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association, and shall have all of the powers and duties that are usually vested in the office of a president of a corporation. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board; shall see that orders and resolutions of the Board are carried out; shall sign all leases, mortgages, deeds and other written instruments and shall exercise such powers and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the Board.

(b) Vice-President. The Vice-President shall act in the place and stead of the President in the event of his absence, inability or refusal to act, and shall exercise such powers and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the Board.

(c) Secretary. The Secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all meetings and proceedings of the Board and other Members; keep the corporate seal of the Association and affix it on all papers requiring such seal; serve notice of meetings of the board and of the Members; keep appropriate current records showing the Members of the Association together with their addresses; perform all other duties incident to the office of a secretary of a corporation; and shall exercise such powers and discharge such other duties as required by the Board.

(d) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive and cause to be deposited in appropriate bank accounts all monies of the Association providing for the separation of operational and reserve funds. The Treasurer will maintain proper books of account and present a record of expenditures to the Membership at its regular monthly and annual meetings. These records will be included on the Resident Information Page of the Community Website and the financial read book at the lodge office. A copy of the annual report will be provided to each member. The Treasurer shall perform all other duties incident to the office of a treasurer of a corporation and exercise such powers and perform such other duties as required by the Board. The Treasurer shall also serve as Chair of the Financial Management and Business Advisory Committee. These additional duties are described in the Commission of the Treasurer as approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Duties Fulfilled by Manager. The Board shall hire a Manager who will manage the day-to-day operations of the Association. The Manager may hire additional staff with the approval of the Board. The manager shall be in charge of all other employees. The Manager shall follow and uphold all Board policies, procedures, and decisions, and shall be directed only by the President of the Association or a person designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX

COMMITTEES

The Board shall name a chairperson for each of the following Standing Committees: Architectural Control, Audit, Facilities, Lodge, Financial Management and Business Advisory Panel (which will always be chaired by the Association Treasurer), Lawn Care, Library, Publicity, Guard and Patrol Services, RV Committee, Reserve Activities, and Social. The Board shall name the editor of The Scene. The Board shall name chairs of temporary committees. All committee chairpersons will create their own committees as needed. The Board may remove any chair and place another Member as chair at any time. The names or designations of the various committees are subject to change when appropriate and approved by the Board of Directors..

ARTICLE X

RECORDS AND AUDITS

Section 1. Records and Reports. The Board shall cause to be kept records with detailed accounts of the receipts and expenditures of the Association and produce periodic reports in writing of such receipts and expenditures. Such records and other papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any Member in the presence of a Member of the Board. The Board will use its best efforts to facilitate such inspections, providing such inspections do not unreasonably divert Association employees from their normal duties. Further, the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any Member at the principal office of the Association, where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost.

Section 2. Audits. The Board shall have the books of the Association audited at such intervals as they deem appropriate, but not less often than once every three years. Such audits and reviews shall be conducted under the supervision of a professional accountant who is not a member of the Association nor related to or with a vested interest in the Association. A review of financial books of the association will be conducted during the intervening years.

ARTICLE XI

ASSESSMENTS

As more fully provided in the Declaration, each Member is obligated to pay to the Association annual and special assessments which are secured by a lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property, and interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. No Owners may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by nonuse of the Common Area, by the partial or complete maintenance of his own lawn and shrubs or abandonment of his Lot, or Lot and Unit.

ARTICLE XII

CORPORATE SEAL

The Association may have a seal, and if a seal is used, it shall be in circular form having within its circumference the words: Scenic Hills Community Association, Inc.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These By-Laws may be altered, amended or rescinded at a regular or special meeting of the Members by a majority vote of a quorum of Members in good standing present in person or by absentee ballot. All amendments and other business items to be voted on at the Annual Meeting or other Association meetings must be presented to the membership at least two weeks prior to the meeting or as provided for under the Texas Property Code.

Section 2. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these By-Laws, the Declaration shall control.

ARTICLE XIV

DECLARATION OF USE RIGHTS

Subject to the provisions of Section 15 of Article VI of the Declaration, in the event an Owner shall rent his Lot, or Lot and Unit, or sell it pursuant to contract for deed, the tenant or contract purchaser shall only be entitled to exercise the Owner's right of enjoyment as to the Common Areas if such right is specifically delegated in writing by the Owner, and a copy of such instrument is filed with the Secretary of the Association. During the period of time such rights have been delegated, the Owner shall not be entitled to the use of the Recreational Facilities. Such delegation shall be in accordance with the Declaration and all rules and regulations of the Association

ARTICLE XV

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Association shall coincide with the calendar year.

These Amended and Restated By-Laws of Scenic Hills Community Association, Inc. have been adopted at a special meeting of the members of the Association held on March 26, 2009, by a majority vote of members present in person or by proxy at such meeting.
